White Street Battle Flares

Ask 1100 Signatures 'Against'

Signatures of more than 1100 Broadmoor homeowners will be sought on petitions this week when the Broadmoor Property Owners' Association climaxes its local campaign to halt county plans for a direct thoroughfare linking Broadmoor to the Westlake shopping center.

The petition drive will be conducted Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week when members of the Broadmoor Police Reserve Unit, led by Police Commissioner Harry Brown, conduct a house-to-house canvass for the needed signatures.

Addressed to the County Board of Supervisors, the petition asks this body to "take appropriate steps with the proper agencies" for abandonment of plans to build the proposed thoroughfare.

Among major points raised in the petition are danger to the lives of more than 1000 school children, destuction of a newly seeded and developed play area which cost the county $26,595, loss of an area 120 feet wide and seven hundred feet long from the school playground, unnecessary destruction of at least three homes, creation of increased and needless traffic problems without additional benefits, and creation of a major throughfare dead-ending at a step grade on 87th street, only 200 feet from a major intersection for school children.

County engineer's plans call for condemnation of possibly the sixth, seventh and eighth houses from the corner of 87th and Washington, construction of an unpaved road beginning at the site of the condemned homes and leading to Westlake, erection of protective fences, and construction of an underpass to provide access between the dissected sections of Garden Village playground.

The Town Recold

By Monte Daton

DC police officer RICHARD DE LOSA was unable to report to work Friday.

The reason: the police department's new agility tests to gauge physical capality proved a little too strenuous.

De Losa had to limp home from the tests, but was back on his feet next day.

What with such rigorous tests, you can't say the DC cops don't keep in shape.

City Manager HOWARD STITES, contrary to what seemed to be the city council's consensus last week, negotiated with City of Pacifica Monday to keep the Coast Highway in use.

The DC council last week indicated that they wanted no part of the Coast Highway when it is relinquished by the state in about 80 days and is turned over to Daly City. Abandonment of the cost-to-maintain highway seemed to be the only answer, according to council comment.

But Stites told Pacifica officials that Daly City could even maintain the Pacifica portion of the highway on contract basis.

Looks like Daly City will have its own scenic route . . . but it'll be mighty expensive scenery.

Trustees' Decision

SEEK NEW ARCHITECT FOR 4TH HI SCHOOL

A new architectural firm will be hired to design Jefferson Union high school district's fourth high school, scheduled to be built by 1961 in the Linda Mar area.

Trustees made this decision unanimously Monday night during a special meeting, followed by an executive session of the board on personnel matters.

Supt. Ed Morgan said the motion to employ a new architect for the Linda Mar plant was not indicative of any dissatisfaction on the part of the administration and trustees with Architect Mario Ciampi, who designed Westmoor and has the contract for the third high school in Sharp Park.

"We (the administration) and the board feel that the heavy volume of business, confronting both the district and Mr. Ciampi, necessitate that another firm be contracted for the Linda Mar project."

"This certainly is no reflection against Ciampi," Morgan continued. "In fact the board agrees that his work has been of excellent caliber. And he will always be considered for other contracts with the district."

Ciampi is busy now with plans for remodeling ancient Jefferson High, the Sharp Park plant, and undoubtedly will be asked to design the second increment to Westmoor when the district is financially able and ready to authorize the additions.

Morgan reminded that the administration and trustees feel that competition among architects for school contracts is both practical and worthwhile.

The superintendent said he will begin interviewing architects next month for consideration by the board for the Linda Mar school.

Ciampi was granted final payment Monday night for his firm's work on Westmoor. His total pay was $217,265.19, eight percent of the total construction costs of the school.

Monday's brief regular agenda found trustees approving an outlay of $60 to San Francisco State college as reimbursement for two student teachers, and a report by Morgan on the adult school program. Average daily attendance at adult school is almost double that of last year. Director John Ivan reports a current ADA of 98, compared to 68 in 1957.

Clayton Kollman, dean of boys at Westmoor, also was authorized to direct the district's summer school for the second straight year.

Shapiro Claims He Didn't Offer 'Deal'

A Daly City school official today said he was disturbed about and regretted the remarks made by State Senator Richard Dolwig about him Saturday to the State Allocations Board in Saramento.

Dr. David Shapiro, assistant superintendent for Jefferson Elementary school district, denies that he suggested a "deal" with the senator in conferences about the M. Pauline Brown and Gen. Pershing school sites.

Dolwig told state officials Saturday that Shapiro offered to bargain with him if he (the senator) would "use his good offices" to get state approval of three acres of San Francisco land for the JESD's proposed 10-acre Pershing site.

Drop One Acre

Dolwig told the press Shapiro hinted he would consider dropping the district's interest in the one-acre Schenone property (a nursery), which the school district needs as part of its 10-acre M. Pauline Brown site in the St. Francis Heights subdivision.

"I don't think state business should be conducted this way," Dolwig was quoted as saying.

"If Jefferson is willing to give up that extra acre by trading for three acres at another school site, then maybe they don't need that extra acre," he concluded.

The board subsequently held up a $267,000 state loan to the Daly City district for purchase of the M. Pauline Brown site.

Shapiro, believing Dolwig's remarks were a bit exaggerated, said he would like to give his side of the story to clarify Dolwig's "misinterpretation of the facts."

Shapiro said he was first contacted by Dolwig by phone on January 13, at which time Dolwig wanted to know why the Schenone land was included in the 10-acre Brown site. Dolwig, according to reliable sources, is a personal

Auto Show Set For Westlake

Over 150 American and foreign production cars are to be on display during the second anual Westlake Auto Show, opening Wednesday, February 5, and running through Saturday, February 8.

According to Les Ritchie, president of the Westlake Business and Professional association, sponsors of the event, plans call for the American cars to be stationed in Westlake Court, with the foreign cars placed in the various stores throughout the shopping center.

Ranging from the smallest foreign car to the ultar-impressive American production cars, the automotive minded public will have a huge selection of automobiles to look over.

An added attraction will be several displays of the newly-popularized motor scooters, while one section of the show will be devoted to an exhibit of the new quarter midget racing cars.

The quarter midgets, miniature cars built for children 7 to 12 years of age, is the newest rage in racing. The small cars are built to the same specifications as the larger midget racing cars, yet are controlled by the small children. Both boys and girls in the age bracket race the cars, with several clubs now in existence. The display will be staged in one of the arcades of the 66-store shopping center.

Ritchie emphasized there is no admission charge to the show, and all exhibits will be open during shopping hours both Wednesday night and Friday night until 9 p.m.

Murphy, Manis New Broadmoor Assn. Directors

Postmaster Vincent P. Murphy and San Francisco business man Lou Manis last week were named to fill vacancies on the board of directors, Broadmoor Property Owners' Association, according to Edward J. Lee, president.

Murphy, who is also president of the Daly City Chamber of Commerce and active with the Daly City-Colma Lions club, Knights of Columbus, St. Vincent de Paul Society, and the Holy Name Society and Men's Club of Holy Angels church, replaces Al Nickas, resigned director.

Manis, of 211 Village Lane, is co-owner of Manis & Gellman, a jewelry manufacturing,

High Brass Back 'Link' To W'lake

The Westlake Improvement Association, the mayor and city manager of Daly City, and the new civil disaster council today combined to answer a protest by Broadmoor officials against connecting Westlake and Broadmoor with a second road.

They held that the so-called "White street" extension from Broadmoor to Westlake subdivision as a supplement to Maddux avenue, is "vital" to police, fire, civil defense and "growth of a coordinated community."

Directors of the Westlake Improvement association Monday night declared themselves "shocked" at the stand taken by the Broadmoor Property Owners association against the White street project.

Andrew Buffico, who authored a motion to reaffirm the association's previous position endorsing White street extension as a "must project," told his fellow directors:

"Their whole objection seems to come down to two points, one that it will increase traffic through Broadmoor and two that it will mean more danger to the children in the neighborhood and the school. I can't see where the facts back either of these points up.

"Right now—by an official count of the people using Maddux avenue to get from Eighty-seventh street into Westlake or in the reverse direction—more than 1500 cars travel that narrow 32 foot street. Have the some 70 homeowners with children who live along Maddux avenue—as compared to the few who will be affected on the new route—been asked whether they want to see some of that traffic diverted by the short-cut?

"On the second point, have these men, as homeowners in Broadmoor, thought that perhaps their property values might be enhanced by the new accessibility created when the short-cut is put through by the county? It will certainly have a beneficial effect on fire rates in Broadmoor."

Glenn Zwicker, who seconded the motion, pointed out that Daly City has been asked to provide fire protection for all of Jefferson Elementary School District schools, including the schools in unincorporated territory now protected by the volunteer Colma Fire department.

"If they won't consider that," Zwicker said, "at least they should consider the problem of mutual fire fighting aid—which can obviously be more effectively rendered when a home, or several homes in Broadmoor catch fire and Daly City engines come from the new Westlake station via the shortcut if needed."

Mayor Joseph Verducci commented that the extension is vital to all elements of the Daly City-Colma-Broadmoor-

DC Removed From High SF Category

Auto insurance rates skyrocketed this week, but Daly City motorists have the distinction of receiving probably the smallest increase in the state—approximately $1 on the average.

The average San Franciscan will cough up an extra $31 for his auto insurance tab this year, and the remainder of San Mateo county drivers will kick in $17 more.

Daly City got this insurance "windfall' by virtue of the fact that it has been removed from the San Francisco territory for public liability insurance and property damage. San Francisco drivers pay the highest insurance of any in the state.

The National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters and National Automobile Underwriters association announced Monday that Daly City area has been transferred to San Mateo county territory IV for public liability coverage. This includes the Colma, Bayshore and Brisbane area.

How It Happened

It happened like this: Daly City drivers, lumped into San Francisco for public liability, had been paying an average of $72 for premiums. San Francisco took a jump to $88 in this category.

Daly City had always been included in San Mateo county rates for collision. The San Mateo county rate for this category jumped from $59 to $70, meaning an $11 increase for the average Daly City area motorist.

But the transfer to San Mateo county on public liability dropped Daly City from San Francisco's new rate of $88 to San Mateo county's new rate of $62. Thus, a savings of $26 for this type insurance. This does not represent a cash savings, however, since Daly City residents had been paying $72 for public liability, the 1957 San Francisco rate.

If you drive a low-price family car, are aver 25, are a good risk, and carry a $50 deductible policy, you will pay approximately $132 for your insurance this year—$62 for liability; $70 for collision.

In S.F., $158

Had Daly City remained in San Francisco for liability coverage, local motorists would have paid $158 for their insurance this year—$88 for liability; $70 for collision.

Citizens Steering Unit Asks Funds, Decides To Pick Single Project

Daly City's newly-formed citizens steering committee held its inaugural meeting Monday, and promptly: 1—Asked for $1500 to pay for clerical personnel. 2—Accepted resignation of one of its members, Jack Walo. 3—Decided to establish a single priority project before proceeding any further. 4—Set next meeting for Friday, January 31.

The $1500 allocation will go to pay for supplies and a secretary-clerk to tabulate data and take minutes of the meetings.

Committeemen agreed that they should first accumulate information on civic needs before delving into any one particular project. They were unanimous, however, in declaring that the committee should work as a whole on one key project at a time. Once data is accumulated, the steering group will decide what type of city facility is most urgently needed. A new city hall will be among items considered for top priority.

Walo, an insurance agent, said his job did not permit him to devote enough time to what he termed an important post on the steering committee and he declined his nomination. Councilman Sanford Vickers, who appointed Walo, will name a replacement for the committee.

Mayor Joseph Verducci acted as chairman for Monday's initial session. Vickers was also in atendance.

The January 31 meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Couple Held In B'moor Burglary

A Broadmoor family Monday recovered most of the $1069 in property taken in the ransacking of their home by burglars last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cheetham, 802 Midway avenue, identified their missing articles at San Bruno police headquarters, where a young San Francisco couple, William Leroy, 21, and Jane Bucy, 17, were booked by police. The culprits, allegedly married, are charged with a series of north county house burglaries.

Chief Ray Savage of the Broadmoor police said the suspects broke into the Cheetham home Tuesday afternoon last week by forcing open the rear French-style windows. Taken were $50 in cash, a valuable watch and ring, and five fifths of whiskey.

The Cheethams recovered all but the whiskey and the cash.

City To Issue 'Disaster' Books On February 1

Boy Scouts will deliver 15,000 Daly City "Civil Disaster" booklets to homes throughout the area on Saturday, February 1.

Just off the press, the booklets, drafted by the city Defense-Disaster Council, outline in detail emergency procedures to be followed here in event of attack or natural chaos.

The booklets include specifics on air attack warning signals, the "Conelrad" radio setup, evacuation district and routes, earthquake routines, and pointers about radioactivity.

The Broadmoor and Colma areas are also on the distribution list—Broadmoor paying Daly City for its share of the printing expense.

Residents are urged to study the booklets carefully and to keep them handy at all times.

Fifty Boy Scouts from 10 local Troops will deliver the booklets. Girl Scouts also have aided the cause, gathering at Jefferson High this past weekend to insert special circulars into the booklets.

Gas Man Pumps Profit To Polio

Joe Lewkowitz, elementary school trustee and service station operator, this Sunday—for the tenth straight year—pumps gas for polio.

His five-cents profit off each gallon sold this Sunday, from 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., will go to the San Mateo County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Joe's "Polio Day" is co-sponsored by the DC-Colma Lions Club and Richfield Oil Company.

The Richfield station is located at 3356 San Jose avenue, across from the Bank of America, top of the hill.

Attorney Cohn Resigns Post On Commission

Julian D. Cohn, member of the Daly City planning commission since August of 1954, has submitted his letter of resignation to the city council.

The attorney, who lives at 93 Dorchester drive and operates an office in Sharp Park, said the pressure of law practice left him "unable to devote to the office of planning commissioner the amount of time it warrants."

Cohn was chairman of the commission for 2½ years, ending last July.

The city council will consider a replacement at its next regular session.

Burglar 'Disarms' Market

Daly City police today continued to look for clues on a cagey burglar who remained inside Spotlite market Tuesday night after closing time, then broke into the store office and escaped with a .38 revolver and a $20 bill from a desk drawer.

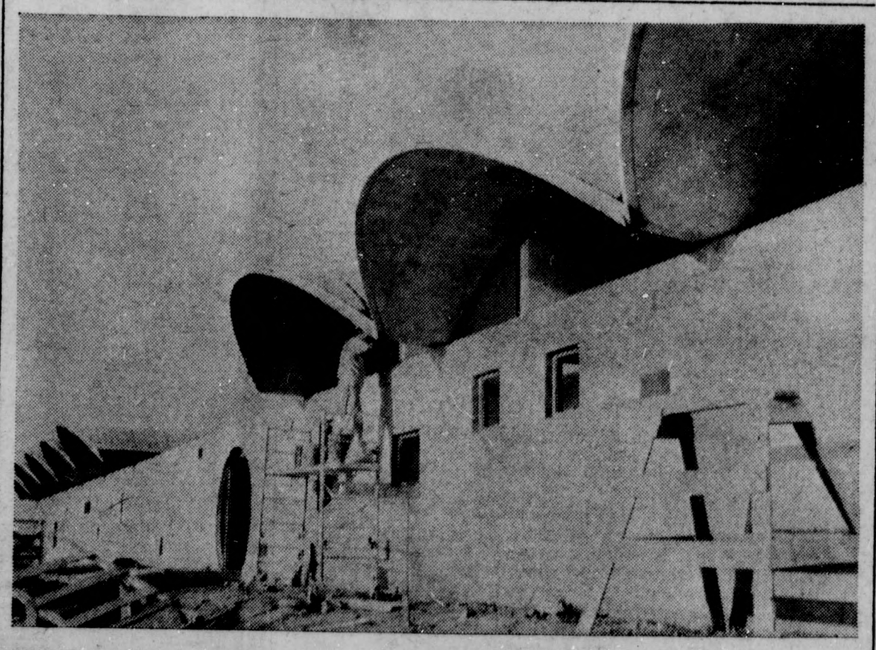
Donald Webb, 27, store janitor, phoned police shortly past midnight when he saw someone in the store office. At first, Webb said he thought the man might have been Spotlite owner George Glass. But when the janitor heard the sound of wood splintering he knew the intruder was uninvited.

The burglar, according to Glass, used a pry bar to break into the store office, and he escaped by breaking the inside slabs off the rear door of the building.

A swarm of police officers and inspectors searched the surrounding area, finally spotting a man fleeing towards the Crocker hills. The suspect disappeared near Edgewood park.

Interrupted by the janitor's appearance in the store, the thief failed to take additional money from the desk drawer. Nohting else in the store was bothered, according to Glass.

The store owner ironically had the revolver on hand to meet just such emergencies.



SLIGHTLY behind schedule is construction of Vista Grande primary school, located on the high ground off Thiers and Wyandotte streets. Approximately 240 youngsters now on double sessions at Colma K-6 and Thornton will be moved into Vista Grande. Designed by Architect Mario J. Ciampi, the school consists of six classrooms and a kindergarten.

OF POLITICS AND HORSE RACES

Those who follow horses and politics know that opening day and "getaway" day in both fields of endeavor are mong the most exciting.

This Thursday is opening day of the political horse race in Daly City.

The aspirants will be jockeying for post position and handicaps from now right down to post time on Thursday, February 13, at noon.

The handicappers, as of right now, will have to give short odds on the morning line for the three incumbents. Incumbents, by tradition, are always awarded a slight advantage.

But as the entries come in, there'll be just as much speculation and doubt about the outcome as there is in the Sport of Kings.

Most people love a good horse race, and elections, though differing in a few minor respects, command just about as much attention.

We hope that from now through April 8, most of the Daly City citizenry will keep a close eye on the political scene.

We know little of handicapping the bangtails, but we can give a pretty good assessment of political candidates, the latter being a little less expensive and somewhat more rewarding in the long run.

Unlike the track, where fortune sometimes does us wrong, you, the citizens, can control the outcome of the April 8 contest.

We advise Daly City residents to keep their eye on the contestants from now right down to the wire, rather than taking a "flyer" on three candidates at the last minute.

Take a good, long searching look at your entries for the April Daly City Sweepstakes.

If you pick a loser, it's your own fault.

They're off and runnin'.

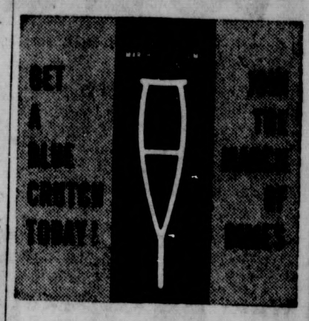
Strictly For Veterans

By Grace Hill

The "Blue Crutch" program, sponsored in San Mateo county by the American Legion, has been well planned. Workers will be on the streets and in business places Friday and Saturday, January 17 and 18. This is an assist to the "March of Dimes" program and warrants your help.

Broadmoor Unit 824, American Legion Auxiliary, entertained District President Frances Connolly and Vice President Adele Clark at their recent meeting. Outstanding reports in membership and rehabilitation were given. Sports, also, are enjoyed. The mixed bowling teams with the Post are well supported. The teams bowl at Lincoln Bowl every Thursday evening. The Unit will hold a rummage sale February 6, 7 and 8. Anyone wishing to contribute articles should please notify Katherine Flanagan, PL 6-5061, or Betty Chrisman, PL 6-5406.



The American War Mothers will hold a card party this Thursday evening in Little Italy Hall. The public is invited.

Several representatives of the 26th District will attend the State Executive Board Meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary in San Francsico, January 23 and 24, including Past Department President Mrs. T. Louis Chess, District President Mrs. Frances Connolly, District Vice President Mrs. Adele Clark, Department Drill Team Chairman Mrs. Helen Berryessa, and Junior Past District President Mrs. Grace Hill.

Daly City Post and Unit 410, American Legion, will hold their regular Pot Luck dinner, Saturday evening, January 25, in Legion Hall. An enjoyable time and social hour is planned.

COMMUNITY-FOR-YOUTH

300 Residents Give 'KIP' Good Sendoff

More than 300 residents swarmed into Daly City War Memorial building last week as "Kids-In Performance," recently born community organization to open opportunity's door to youth, launched a membership campaign with a giant rally.

Mrs. Kay Irvine, KIP's founder and leading lady, was overwhelmed by the response. It convinced her that the town is ready to put its collective shoulder behind the project.

KIP's objective is to enlist, guide and better the talents of local children, ages 6 to 19, in a variety of activities, from arts to crafts—both on an individual and group basis.

No Costs

There are no fees necessary for membership. Adult volunteers supervise the program, and many more are needed to give the tireless Mrs. Irvine and her staff a hand, professional or otherwise.

Youngsters wishing to enroll (hundreds have already) are asked to immediately mail a postcard to "KIP, Room 4, War Memorial Community Center, Daly City." Full name, address, telephone number, age, and school should be included on the postcard.

Adults who'd like to help should contact Mrs. Irvine, DE 3-6165; Mrs. Garbe, PL 5-0133, or Mrs. Sallade, JU 5-4301.

Main Speakers

Speakers at last week's kickoff rally included Mrs. Irvine, who discussed KIP's requirements and plans; Officer John Coleman, president of the Police Athletic League, and Miss Dorothy Webb, director of the AAA Mobile Service Club, Presidio of San Francisco.

Coleman pledged PAL cooperation with KIP, and Miss Webb praised the group for its recent services to the Armed Forces in the form of benefit shows. KIP officially has been listed as a permanent member of the 30th AAA outfit as the latter's number one entertainment unit.

Among the dignitaries attending the rally were: Chief of Police and Mrs. Roland A. Petrocchi, Councilman and Mrs. Del Wilson, James Goulden, vice chairman of Daly City Knights of Columbus; Mrs. Margaret Jensen, director of Community Music Center (agency of the Community Chest); Mrs. Helene Jaye, secretary; registrar of Community Music Center; Mrs. Audrey Sallade, president of OLPH Mothers' club; Ralph C. Hall, president of OLPH Men's club; Ann C. Herald, service club director at the Presidio, and Mr. and Mrs. Nate Pearlman.

A giant talent show, featuring KIP youngsters with the aid of the PAL, is scheduled next month, Mrs. Irvine said.

Hadassah Ladies Hear SF State Prof Thursday

A Fiesta Luncheon has been planned by Westlake Group of Hadassah at Henry Doelger clubhouse, this Thursday, starting at noon. Mrs. S. Meltzer is in charge of arrangements.

Speaker will be Dr. M. Keston, professor of psychology at S. F. State college. His subject will be "What Kind of a Parent Are You." There will also be a question and answer period.

Plans for the February 8 dance to be held at the Westlake auditorium, will be discussed. Chairman for the dance is Mrs. F. Pollat. Mrs. F. Brann is in charge of ticket sales and may be called at MO 1-0087 for reservations. For transportation to the meeting, contact Mrs. B. F. Derish, president, PL 5-8861.

WESTMOOR PTA TO AWARD 3 SCHOLARSHIPS

Westmoor High PTA last week approved three $1000 scholarships to be granted this June to graduates of the school's first senior class.

The move came on recommendation of Mrs. Howard Dunbar, Westmoor PTA president.

The money, from the unit's general fund (boosted by the recent banquet), will be deposited with the registrars at the college or university entered by the winning trio.

Last Thursday's meeting featured a student panel discussion on such topics as use of the family car, dating, and school - home relationships. Members were Bernadette Kostevich, Alleen Downey, Barbara Mitchell, Marg McDonald, Joe Rex, Jed Cyr, Garry Wagner and Matt Fox. Thanos "Tom" Panagoulias, student adviser, was the moderator.

Mrs. C. S. Mattison, PTA program chairman, reports that Dr. Helen F. Goffman and Dr. John Hutchings, psychologists from US hospital, will be special speakers at the February 20 PTA meeting.

Church Of Christ Welcomes Public To Hear Lecturer

How to apply God's healing power to solve problems of everyday living will be the topic of a public lecture to be given here next Tuesday evening by Paul Starl Seeley of Portland, Oregon, at 8 o'clock.

Seeley, a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship, will speak at Ninth Church of Christ, Scientist, 175 Junipero Serro boulevard. His subject will be "Christian Science: The Healing Power of True Consciousness."

The lecture is free, and local members invite the public to attend. Doors will be open at 7:15 p.m. The lecture will also be radiocast over Station KLX, 910 kilocycles, at 8 o'clock.

Seeley has been prominent in the Christian Science movement for many years. He has served as associate editor of the Christian Science religious periodicals, and as president of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. He has lectured throughout the world.

A member of the bar in New York and Oregon, he is a graduate of Harvard Law school and Princeton university. Prior to devoting full time to the practice of Christian Science, he was associated with an engineering firm in the Northwest.

Shapiro Claims He Didn't Offer 'Deal'

friend of Dick Lyons, attorney for the Schenones, who are fighting the district's condemnation of their property.

The assistant superintendent, reminding Dolwig that he was acting under authorization of the administration and the board of trustees, informed him of the district's needs for a 10-acre site to build a K-6 school housing 572 children. Even with 10 acres, following state formula for student assignment, the district would have only 9.1 usuable acres—flat land.

Dolwig, according to Shapiro, suggested that the district should exclude the Schenone portion by moving in other directions or by settling for a smaller site. He then said he would go to the State Allocations Board to protest the 10-acre site.

Too Costly

On Wednesday, according to Shapiro, the administrative staff discussed the situation with two members of the state department of finance in a meeting here. They conceded that the district probably could get by without the Schenone strip, but that in order to do so prohibitive drainage and retaining wall costs would enter the picture. The state pair advised Shapiro to inform Dolwig of this consideration.

Next day, Shapiro visited Dolwig's Redwood City office, explaining the Wednesday discussion, and documenting his facts with 22 different site maps, which were ordered in determining the final M. Pauline Brown boundaries in the 10-acre plan.

Shapiro explained to Dolwig that the district had to move east onto the Schenone land because moving in the three other directions involved problems of high terrain, invasion of subdivision homes and condemnation action against several other property owners.

Dolwig was still dissatisfied, Shapiro said, and told him he would force a showdown with the state department of school planning and finance.

Use Influence

"I did ask him to use his influence to expedite our school needs, but this business of suggesting a 'deal' is untrue," Shapiro remarked.

"Dolwig knows that I am acting solely under authorization of the administration and the board of trustees, I believe people know me well enough not to question my integrity."

A special meeting will be held next Tuesday morning in the JESD office in an attempt to expedite the M. Pauline Brown matter and the Pershing negotiations. Attending will be representatives of state schoolhouse planning and finance, the JESD administration and board representatives, and the district's architect and engineer.

The Allocations Board has not yet set a date for a new hearing on the M. Pauline Brown loan. The Schenone property, meanwhile, is under condemnation.

Supt. H. Z. Weibel said he thinks negotiations will be firmed soon with property owners on the San Francisco side in the district's quest for the 10-acre Pershing project. Owners of two of the three biggest parcels in SF are willing to sell, he indicated. The district has not initiated condemnation action for the Pershing site, believing the property owners involved will agree to sell at a fair price. Most of the SF land (3 acres) is unimproved, much of it consisting of backyards.

Should the owners on the SF side refuse to sell, the JESD would have to initiate condemnation action outside of San Mateo county, since SF county and SM county would be involved in the suit. SF county and school officials, meanwhile, had stood pat on their protest against JESD for "grabbing three acres of our land for a Daly City school."

rates, Daly City residents will be receiving a savings of some $26, figured from last year's out-of-pocket rates, however, the local motorist will be paying about $1 more.

Last year the average insurance carrier here paid $72 for liability (under the San Francisco territory) and $59 for collision (in the San Mateo territory), for a total of $131—$1 less than the 1958 rate of $132.

Rates vary, of course, for age, type of vehicle, and type of use and some Daly City drivers will receive more of an increase.

But the bulk of the local drivers will pay only a nominal hike. A situation that few other California drivers find themselves in.

City of Daly City got good news today from its insurance agent, Northern San Mateo County Insurance Agents association.

The city will receive a refund of $795.95 on its auto insurance premium, because of the new, lower public liability and property damage rates brought about by the switch of Daly City from San Francisco to San Mateo county for insurance coverage.

The hefty refund is possible because Daly City carries no collision insurance on its vehicles. Daly City area has always been included in San Mateo county territory on collision coverage, and rate for this category in San Mateo county will jump from $59 to $70 per vehicle.

Broadmoor residents have taken up the fight against the street plans and are exploring the possibility of legal action to prevent construction of the Westlake-Broadmoor thoroughfare, their spokesman added.

moor High school dedication ceremonies.

But Mrs. Silen asks, "This is America, isn't it? Why was a rabbi not invited to be present at the dedication as well as a minister and a priest?"

Well, Mrs. Silen, we discovered that at the Jeff graduation last year, there was no representation of the Protestant clergy.

As JUHS superintendent ED MORGAN explains it, "We try to rotate the religious faiths at our various ceremonies."

Sounds like a good enough answer.

Math Interest Heavy In DC's 2 High Schools

Special study session on mathematics, called by Jefferson High School district trustees last week, showed that students at Jefferson and Westmoor are above-average in their interest in the field.

Participating were the board, a faculty panel from both schools, and members of the Jefferson and Westmoor mathematics departments.

Figures on the percentage of students enrolled in math courses, by grade, reflect the national trend of increased math study in high schools, according to Supt. Edward Morgan.

The per class percentage breakdown: Jefferson — 100% in freshman class, 34% sophomores; 20% juniors, and 76% seniors.

Westmoor — 100% freshman, 66% soph, 34% junior, and 86% seniors.

Morgan explained that each student is required to take two years of math. Majority meet the requirement during their first two years, but the percentage of students taking math as seniors indicate the heavy interest, mostly in college preparatory subjects.

New Instructor Joins Westmoor Dance Group Staff

Joining the Westmoor Creative Dance group as chairman of a pre-ballet class is Mrs. Edward Olson, 115 Village Lane. The Westmoor Dance Group, a non-profit cooperative, is currently sponoring pre-ballet and ballet casses, which are held at the Broadmoor Presbyterian church social hall and creative dance classes and tumbling dasses held at the Broadmoor Community Center.

This group is one of several such cooperatives in the Bay Area formed by parens interested in giving their children a creative dance experience under the instruction of the Dick Ford staff. Dick Ford is widely known for his work with children's dance clases in nursery schools and his ward winning television show, 'Hop, Skip and Dance" on KQED.

The natural response of young children to musi and rhythm is the basis for all the children's groups which Ford has organized in the bay area. In discussing his method of dance instruction, he hasmade it clear that this response, if developed and guided, will grow into an able appreciation of dance in all its forms.

To date, according to Mrs. Joseph Elliot, group coodinator, response has been very good and children have found the classes interesting ad enjoyable. Since there ar still a few openings left for enrollment in the winter tern Parents may call the following: Mrs. Joseph Elliott, coodinator, PL 5-3218; Mrs. Robert Tuttle, treasurer, PL 5-0492; and chairmen Mrs. David Feld, PL 6-3617; Mrs. Clifford Glicksman, PL 6-3266; Mrs. Monroe Kroll, JU 5-9746; Mrs. Edward Liska, PL 5-3010; Mrs. Charles McCarthy, JU 4-2760; Mrs. Alton Swedberg, PL 5-1364; Mrs. Vic Guz, PL 5-2393; and Mrs. Victor Bass, JU 3-9087.

Girl Scouts Aid In Preparing DC Defense Books

Some 200 Intermediate Girl Scouts, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth graders, representing about 20 troops, spent last Saturday morning assembling Civil Defense folders. The pamphlets are being prepared for a near future distribution to every home in the area.

The Girl Scouts represented came from Bayshore, Broadmoor, Parkview-Sterling Park, Peoria, and Westlake.

The cooperation and effort put forth into this service project will go toward earning proficiency badges for the girls.

The job of assembling these important pamphlets will be completed Saturday.

The project was under the supervision of Mrs. Charles Ecker, district chairman. She was assisted by Girl Scout leaders from the various troops.

Children outrank sharp knives and hot burners as a hazard in the kitchen, the National Safety Council says.

The 64,500,000 registered vehicles in the United States traveled 630 billion miles in 1956, according to the National Safety Council.

DIRECTOR of Daly City's "KIP Workshop," a new organization designed to bring youthful talent to the fore, is Mrs. Kay Irvine, housewife of 1257 Brunswick street. Adult volunteers are still needed to assist Mrs. Irvine and her staff with the year-around project. KIP meetings are held the second, third and fourth Tuesday evenings of each month, from 7 to 9, at War Memorial building. Mrs. Irvine can be reached at DE 3-6165.

Jeff Hi Paper Repeats As TB Contest's 'Best'

"The Totem Pole," Jefferson High School's student publication, won first prize in the 1957 School Press Project sponsored by the San Mateo County Tuberculosis and Health Association, according to Miss Ada Beveridge, public relations chairman.

Honorable mention went to the "B," published by Burlingame High School students, and to Westmoor High School's "Rampage."

It was the second year that the local TB Association sponsored the press project in cooperation with the National Tuberculosis Association and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, and it was the second year that "The Totem Pole" won. Jefferson High School will keep the plaque awarded last spring by the TB Association for another year.

Judges were Miss Beveridge; Dr. James O. Greenwell, president of the San Mateo County TB Association; and Jack Russell, make-up editor of the San Mateo Times. The winning entry has been awarded to the California Tubeculosis and Health Association, for judging in the statewide competition.

The school publications entered in the contest were judged for articles, cartoons, and editorials on two subjects: "Can We Wipe Out TB In Our Town?" and "Your Future In A Health Career."

NEXT SEMESTER

Refresher Math, Business Investment Courses Planned By Adult School

A course in practical refesher mathematics and a course in business investments will be offered at the Jefferson Adult Evening School next semester if sufficient registrations are obtained.

This action was prompted as the result of an over-whelming response received from last week's announcement that two new courses would be offered if sufficient registrations warranted it. As a result Office Machines will start its first session on January 29 at the Jeff campus and two sections of Public Speaking will get under way—one at the Linda Mar campus in Pacifica, the other at the Jeff campus.

The mathematics course slated for Thursday evenings will carry five units of high school credit and is designed to meet the needs of those wanting a review in math fundamentals, practice in shop mathematics, preparation for civil service exams, computing income tax statements, budget items like investments, interest, and lay-away time payment plans as well as introducing would be "do-it-yourself" addicts to the intricacies of constructing bill of materials and computing cost of home improvements. Stress is on the functional use of mathematics and will be taught by Frank Pustay, who will bring his engineering training and general contracting experience to the class.

The second course to be conducted by Mr. Bava on Tuesday evenings will bring a rich experience of brokerage firms to discuss modern Investment Securities. Such topics as buying and selling stocks, the operation of the N. Y. Stock exchange, bonds, mutual funds, analyzing financial statements, and many other topics will be discussed. Those interested in either or both courses should phone PL 5-1162 and make reservations.

Linda Mar PTAers Promise 'The Works' At Valentine's Dance

February 14 is traditionally a day of sweethearts, and the Linda Mar PTA was busy this week planning to revive all the old-fashioned little red schoolhouse flavor of St. Valentine's Day.

According to Mrs. R. W. (Janet) Richards, dance chairman, their Sweethearts Ball will be complete with red hearts, valentine boxes, and dance programs.

The dance is being held to provide funds for eigth-grade graduation expenses. Any money in excess of those expenses will go into a scholarship fund, and the hospitality budget of the PTA.

Tickets, at one dollar per person, will be available at the door, and may be obtained in advance from Mrs. Higgins, EL 9-2285, or Mrs. Barnhart, EL 9-2616.

DR. ROBINSON LINDA MAR PTA GUEST SPEAKER

Dr. Hal Robinson will be the principal speaker this Thursday night at the Linda Mar PTA meeting, beginning at 8 o'clock in the school's community room. In line with a current study in the Bay Area, his subject will be "The Whole Parent-Child Relationship With Its Rewards and Punishments." A question and answer period will follow his speech.

Dr. Robinson's background includes work with the University of Colorado's Children's Medical Center. He received his PhD from Stanford and worked also with the Veteran's Administration Psychiatric Hospital. He is currently professor at San Francisco State college.

Mrs. Herbert Weiss, program chairman, said that a report on the local report-card study will be given by Mrs. Anne Countryman, a teacher in the Linda Mar school. She served on the Laguna Salada Citizen's Group Committee whose research resulted in the new type cards to be sampled in the fourth-grade classes.

A nominating committee will be chosen to select a slate of officers for the PTA next year. Voting for new officers will be in March.

Troop Leader, Mrs. Frank Hanly, and Mrs. Martini, mother of one of the youngsters, escorted the entourage.

Girls grateful to Beecher and his fellow gendarmes were Ruth Beecher, Peggy Hanly, Judy Hnilo, Rosemarie Martini, Theresa Mercurio, Kristine Mini, Janice Smith, Mary Jane Themoleas and Janis Willey.

2 Top Hi School Graduates Here Due Cash Awards

Systematic Savings and Loan Association has joined the savings and loan business throughout California in the inauguration of an Outstanding Student Award program, designed to recognize an outstanding senior in approximately 300 of the state's public high schools.

Systematic Savings is actively participating in the program and will give a cash award next year to one graduating senior from Westmoor and Jefferson high schools, according to David B. Sweeney, president.

The actual cash award will be made during the Spring of 1958 to an outstanding graduate of each high school during the 1957-58 term. This student must be eligible and plan to attend a college, university, or junior college the next succeeding school semester. At the student's option, he then will be invited to compete in a state-wide essay contest to be held May 24, 1958. Five $1000 scholarships will be awarded to the winners of this contest. The entire program involves approximately $50,000.

The scholarships will be granted students irrespective of any other scholarship funds or grants-in-aid won by the recipient, and there is no restriction on the use of the scholarship funds after receipt by the student.

Seacliff Church Groundbreaking Set This Sunday

Groundbreaking ceremony will take place this Sunday at 3 p.m. on the Seacliff Community Church site, 50 Northridge drive in the Palisades. The public is cordially invited to attend by the Rev. Fred L. Fanthorpe, pastor.

Over eight years of effort have been involved on the part of the pastors and congregation of Emmanuel Evangelical United Brethren congregation of San Francisco to make this new Westlake church a reality.

The church has been designed by well known church architect, Alfred W. Johnson, and his associate, William Sargent. It has been designed to accommodate a congregation of over 2000 members with a family-centered church program. It will be built in six or more progressive stages.

Unit I will consist of a chapel seating 150 persons, a parlor, kitchen, and administrative offices to double temporarily for classrooms. Construction will begin immediately on the chapel by Joel Johnson & Son, contractors. Its cost will be $33,850, and completion is expected to take 120 days.

The Seacliff congregation is building this church for all Protestant families lacking a church of their own communion in Westlake.

Announcement will be made at the groundbreaking and in subsequent issues as to the time and place of services in Westlake. Beginning on Wednesday evening, January 29, and each Wednesday at 8 p.m. thereafter, there will be a class in church membership and leadership training at the home of Pastor Fanthorpe, 787 South Mayfair. All interested persons are invited to attend these sessions and will be under no obligation whatever.

GROUND will be broken this Sunday at 3 p.m. at the site of Seacliff Community Church, located at 50 Northridge drive in the Palisades section of Daly City. Above is Architect Alfred W. Johnson's drawing of how the project will look when fully completed under the congregation's master plan. Rev. Fred L. Fanthorpe is pastor and invites all persons of the Protestant faith to membership. Completion of the first unit of the church is expected to take four months.

Olympia-Vista Mar Students Hear Talk About Modern Japan

The onset of the new year brought with it some interesting events and forthcoming projects at Olympia and Vista Mar schools.

Learning is a process by which information is absorbed and utilized for future experiences. Yet, the sources from which learning is derived need not be confined to only the teacher. This was exemplified by the visit of John E. Robinson, father of one of Miss Randisi's second grade students.

Robinson and family had recently visited Japan and felt their experiences could be shared with students. He presented a stimulating talk about life in Japan with the aid of various Japanese dolls, depicting the customs and rituals of the country.

Plans in science has been launched by Mrs. Jeane Oberlander, whereby a study of the Solar System is being undertaken to enlighten second graders of the wonders of the universe. Such projects as paper mache moons, planets, and sun further strengthen Mrs. Oberlander's program, making it more meaningful to her students.

Motor Vehicle Office Set Up For Coastsiders

Motorists of the Peninsula coastal area are offered rapid vehicle registration service for 1958 at a temporary renewal station in the Linda Mar branch of the Bank of America at Pedro Valley.

Department of Motor Vehicles has supplied a registration representative to be stationed there through February 4, the deadline for 1958 renewal fees.

The bank station is limited to registering vehicles when fees are submitted with regular 1958 renewal cards. Officials say the processing requires presentation of both parts of the statement card—the stub should not be detached. They also advised that any card marked with a red stripe cannot be handled at the temporary bank station, but should be taken to a permanent full time office at 199 Southgate, Daly City, or 325 Villa Terrace, San Mateo. Any transfer or other special processing is also subject to handling at a permanent DMV office.

The simple renewals are handled very rapidly. A. J. Veglia, Registrar of Vehicles, recommended that motorists residing in the Coast communities call at the Pedro Valley bank station for their green license plate stickers and 1958 registration renewals. He said this is the first time a temporary station has been established for this area.

INCIDENCE DROPS

Only 12 Polio Cases (No Deaths) In San Mateo County During '57

Twelve cases of polio were reported in San Mateo county last year—but there were no deaths from the disease, according to a bulletin released today by the county health department.

Of the 12, nine were paralytic cases, four of whom had taken Salk vaccine. Two of the three stricken with non-paralytic polio had received the serum.

A county spokesman said that during 1957 there was a nationwide reduction in the incidence of polio, due perhaps to the widespread use of state and federal free Salk vaccine.

To date, 263,298 doses of the vaccine have been given to county residents on the three-shot, stage basis. The figure does not include the thouands of doses of commercial vaccine also used in the county.

The county release reminded, however, "Whether the reduction in cases is greater in areas where Salk vaccine usage has been high, or whether states where little vaccine has been used have enjoyed the same low incidence of polio cannot be determined at this time."

Biggest incidence of polio in the county in recent years occurred in 1954 (135 cases and 6 deaths), 1952 (114 cases and 7 deaths), and 1948 (113 cases and 6 deaths). In 1956, there were 48 cases and one death.

Health officials urge residents to begin their polio shots during the winter months since the "polio season" usually is during the summertime.

Broadmoor Folks Get Free Trees

Four thousand Monterey pine seedlings will be given out by the Broadmoor Property Owners Association, this Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on the corner lot at 87th and Washington, according to Edward J. Lee, president.

The seedlings, purchased from the U. S. Forest Service under the association's village beautification program, will be distributed free to Broadmoor residents with a limit of five seedlings per homeowner.

Seedlings not given out by 1 p.m. Saturday will be distributed during the same hours the following day, said Lee, until all trees have been given away.

Three thousand other seedlings will be planted on Broadmoor hillsides in conjunction with the BPOA's soil erosion drive. Planting of several hundred of these hillside trees will be accomplished by Boy Scout Troop 84, which is undertaking the project as a community activity.

Westmoor High Players To Present Missile-Like Comedy, "What A Life"

With all the publicity that interspace travel and guided missiles are getting, Westmoor High's production of the jet-propelled comedy, "What A Life," by Clifford Goldsmith, should set a new record for laughs on the new Little Theater stage February 5 and 6. The production features a cast of 25 aspiring high school actors in a full evening's entertainment—fun for the whole family.

Henry Aldrick, of radio and TV fame, gets into and out of trouble faster than any normal high school boy should. His efforts to raise money to take a new girl friend to the spring dance is the cause of all the hilarity. With the understanding help of the assistant principal, who is in love with the principals secretary, Henry is successful. Meantime, the gamut from chuckles to guffaws is run.

Playing the leading parts in the play are: Larry Bennett as Henry Aldrick, Diane Massucco as Barbara, Avie Katz as the assistant principal, Sally Traeger as Miss Shea, and Bill Sheary as the principal. Others in the cast include: Bill Ellison, Mary Robertson, Rick Schweitzer, Gloria Lopez, Sylvia Gardner, Richard Burkhart, Elizabeth Gilfillan, and Bill Kreuger along with 12 other thespians.

Dramatics classes at Westmoor High school built the new scenery for the play. It is expected that the small seating capacity of 288 will be taxed to accommodate playgoers both nights, Wednesday and Thursday, February 5 and 6. Curtain time is 8 p.m. The director is W. L. Ardis, dramatics coach.

Public Speaking Class For Adults Opens On Coast

Have you ever been called upon "to say a few words" to your club, PTA, or church group, and found you had butterflies in your stomach?

How about after-dinner speeches—would you like to be the George Jessel of the Coastside? To get you started in the right direction, Linda Mar PTA invites you to attend the public speaking class sponsored by Jefferson High school district.

The class, a part of the Adult Education Program, began Monday in room 12 of Linda Mar school (on Rosita road between Peralta and Adobe roads in Pedro Valley), from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. and will continue to meet at the same time each week.

Joseph McGrath teaches the class, which is open to anyone who wishes to attend, and high school credit wil lbe given to those interested in completing the work.

Mrs. Harry Smith, president of Linda Mar PTA, said that the Adult Education Program would be glad to provide teachers for other subjects, too, if at least 15 people sign up for a class.

COUNTY'S TAXABLE PROPERTY RATE SOARING, 5-YEAR SURVEY SHOWS

There is $151 in assessed ...e of taxable property in ...Mateo county this year f... every $100 in such proper... five years ago, California Taxpayers' association said today, making public its study of the five-year trend of property subject to local taxes in California counties.

Total value of taxable property in the county reached $31,328,184 for the present fiscal year, 1957-58, up $213,345,-62 or 51 per cent, from the $17,982,622 total for 1952-53, ... J. Arnold, general manager of the state-wide Taxpayers' Association, said.

This year's total taxable valuation in the county is up $57,491,533 or 10 per cent from the $573,836,651 for 1956-57.

Each cent of property tax levied throughout the county this year meant a tax charge of $63,133, compared with the $41,798 levy from a cent of county-wide tax rate for 1952-53, and the $57,384 levy from a one-cent county-wide tax rate for 1956-57, Arnold said.

State-wide, there is $151 of assessed value of taxable property in California this year for every $100 five years ago, the taxpayer study shows.

Total taxable value of property in California hit $24,308,-182,706 for 1957-58, compared with $16,107,548,255 for 1952-53 and $21,818,921,643 for 1956-57.

"Along with the increase in property tax base in the past five years, many counties and cities in California have added the local sales tax to their sources of revenue," Arnold said.

"The size of property tax bills depends on the size of local government spending programs—including the county governments, and the cities, school districts, and other kinds of districts which tax property.

"Local government budgets for 1958-59 are already being formulated in many California communities," Arnold pointed out.

"If property owners want reasonable local property tax bills for 1958-59, they should be demanding reasonable local government spending programs now," he declared.

Two Youths Admit School Vandalism

Two Ben Franklin students broke into four classrooms of the school Saturday afternoon and did about $40 worth of damage by tossing ink and clay with reckless abandon.

The pair, 11 and 7 years old, confessed the vandalism when questioned by Broadmoor police Monday. They entered the building through an open window.

Savage said parents of the boys have agreed to make restitution to the school district for the damages.

Pantie Raiders Back On The Prowl Here

Pantie raiders hit two more clotheslines last week, according to police.

Hardest hit was Mrs. Julie Jordan, 156 School street, apartment D. She lost unmentionables and other clothing valued at $169.40.

Seven panties and four bra's were removed from the line of Mrs. Michael Pietro, 41 Park Plaza drive, apartment 25.

Most times juveniles are to blame, but occasionally a psychopath is responsible, police warned.

TITLE BOUND?

Firth Hot As Injuns Rip Blingum, 54-51

By Roy Hurlbert

Fancy Puzzy Firth and guards Gary Ryan and Barrie Haanen shot Jefferson's fast-breaking varsity cagers back on the Peninsula League title track here Tuesday as the Daly City five socked Burlingame, 54-31.

The romp gave Coach Mike Orlich's hustlers a 2-1 league mark, putting them in third place behind undefeated Capuchino (4-0) and South City (3-0). Jeff dropped their opener to Cap, but the locals show no signs of a repeat performance.

The Indians plan to continue their torrid pace this Friday evening at Jeff when Hillsdale's in-and-out Knights invade town. First tipoff is 7:30 o'clock.

No Trouble

As against Westmoor last week, Jeff befuddled the Burlingamers from the start, racing ahead early and staying comfortably in front to the finish. End-of-quarter scores favoring the Indians were 11-4, 25-13 and 35-17.

VETERAN Jeff High cage coach Mike Orlich has his loaded Indian varsity well on the way to the Peninsula League championship. After losing their opener to Cap in San Bruno, the Mission streeters waxed Westmoor and Burlingame. This Friday night the Indians host Hillsdale (2-1). The 30's open the action at 7:30 o'clock.

MOST happy fellow in town last week was Jeff 30's coach Steve Mezzera. His lightweights broke a nine-game losing streak to post a 28-22 victory over Westmoor in Peninsula League action. The Indians had dropped eight practice games and their league opener. A graduate of University of Oregon, Mezzera piloted Jefferson to the NPAL baseball title last year.

Firth, a dribbler of merit, canned six field goals and three charities for game high of 15 points. The senior reliables, Ryan and Haanen, tanked 11 and 10. Orlich again swept his bench. And this year, that bench is pretty good.

Hooks Sanders, Panther center, led his mates with 9 points. The defending champs, however, just couldn't cope with Jeff's speed and shooting skills.

Marc Handicapped

Dennis Marc, Orlich's All-League center candidate, acquired four quick fouls in the first half. Mike wisely sent Pete Garcia into the contest as a fill-in. The rangy footballer handled himself well. Marc finished with only 6 points, much below his usual par.

Steve Mezzera's 30's fell by the wayside, 41-25. Carboni, with 10 points, sparked the Panther lightweights. They led at the midway point, 28-15. Ino Haroon was Jeff's leader with 13 points, 7 of them on free throws. George Oj[illegible]akian, high against Westmoor with 10, hooped in 6. The Indian 30's now stand 1-2 in the loop.

Tribe Gets Easy Win Over Rams

Jefferson varsity cagers were red hot and Westmoor freezing cold Friday night as the Indians raced to an easy 58-23 Peninsula League victory before a packed gym at Westmoor.

Coach Mike Orlich's squad, revived after muffing their opener with Cap, showed no mercy, though the head man cleared his bench midway through the third quarter.

Guard Gary Ryan, the dandy from Brisbane, led the romp with 16 points on a variety of shots. His guard partner, Barrie Haanen, was next with 10.

Big Dennis Marc, 6-5 Jeff pivot, and Haanen ruled the backboards. And Tony Giammona's Rams couldn't hit from far out, so it wasn't much of a ball game.

The Indians led at the end of the first quarter, 14-3, and at the half, 27-9. Third quarter tally was 51-29.

Ram deadeye guards Bill Dougherty and Ross Holmgren were literally stopped cold, but forward Gary Twitty managed 7 points for team high.

Orlich was pleased with the work of his reserves, who figure prominently in the title drive. Southpaw Roy Reitz, in particular, showed tremendous form. He connected for three field goals in rapid order.

Orlich started Puzzy Firth and Bob Berry at forwards, Marc at center, and Haanen and Ryan. Wayne Lewis and Ernie Howren continue to press for starting duty. Jerry Kennedy and Pete Garcia also hustled impressively against the Rams.

Firth, a clever passer, got 9 points last week. Like Haanen, he wears spectacles. No disadvantage at all.

Five Donate Blood

Latest group of Daly City-Colma donors to Peninsula Memorial Blood Bank were listed today.

They are Frank L. Ridge, William F. Watkins, Frank P. Bruno, Mrs. Arthur Huelse and Joseph T. Harrison.

Harrison's trip was his fourth. Mrs. Huelse donated for a third time.

LOCALS AWAIT PANTHERS

Unbeaten Cap Whacks Westmoor Five, 52-29

Westmoor's inexperienced varsity quint, 1-3 in Peninsula League standings, entertain Burlingame, 1-2, this Friday night in the second game of a twin bill at Westmoor gym. The 30's open at 7:30 o'clock.

Tony Giammona's Rams were smeared by unbeated Capuchino here Tuesday. A 20-point outburst in the final period turned what had been a close contest into a rout, 52-29.

The Rams stayed close to the deadly invaders for three periods, using ball control to slow the foe. It was 21-13 at halftime and the Rams pulled to 31-27 as the fourth quarter opened. But Westmoor got only one bucket in that stanza, while John Condrin and his mates exploded for 20 points.

Condrin's nine field goals topped the scoring. Ruona and Peterson, starting guards, each had 10. Gary Twitty led the Rams with 9. Larry Hooper and Larry Schoenfeldt followed with 8 apiece.

Giammona was impressed with Cap's team balance in the long range shooting. He would not concede however, that Cap is better than Jeff, who buried the Rams Friday night.

Cap hit on 53 percent of its field goal tries in the first half, and for the game posted 48 percent accuracy.

By Van Alstyne's Westmoor lightweights lost for the third time in four starts as Cap rolled to a 53-26 victory.

Westmoor's lightweights fell to Jeff last week, 28-22.

BF, Colma, OLPH, PAL 5's Roll On

Ben Franklin, Colma, OLPH and the Police Athletic League cagers remained unbeaten Saturday in the city-sponsored recreation leagues at War Memorial building.

Franklin's Falcon's, pursued only by Our Lady of Mercy (3-1), stayed atop the Sixth Grade loop, picking up a forfeit win over Lincoln Park. The Falcons (4-0) tangle with OLM this Saturday morning at 11 for the title.

The Mercians last week defeated Westlake school, 18-12, as David Nelson led the way with 7 points. Jim Fontenos was tops for the losers with 4.

Hermosillo Hot

Colma's seventh graders took undisputed first place with a 25-20 win over tough War Memorial. As usual, Don Hermosillo shouldered the load, tallying a big 17 points for the Colmans. The WM five was sparked by Walt Pickering with 7.

Other seventh grade game failed to materialize as Our Lady of Mercy forfeited to Westlake school.

OLPH set a season's high in the eighth grade feature tilt, burying Frankfort park, 72-6. Bob Brush clicked for 18 points and Hennessy and Al Cacicedo each bagged 12 for the victors. Other members of the parochial powerhouse are Vic Kulik, Jim Kollman, Bill Kane, Irwin and Green.

One-Man Show

John Pennington did all of Frankfort's scoring on three field goals.

The OLPHers are 4-0 to date. Close on their heels (3-0) is the PAL entry ,which scuttled the Crocker Pirates, 35-8, Saturday.

Jim Francis and Ron Montoya dominated the backboards for the police quintet. Francis was high with 12 points, and Montoya had 8. Others tallying for the winners were Jerry Wills, Tom Glasser, Tinker Hall, Rich Hanick and Dave Mealey.

Crocker's scorers were James Belvin, 4, Sam Ehnon, 2, and Dennis Lewis, 2.

St. James routed OLM, 52-28, as Jim Smith and Tim Clark both hit for 12. Ed Sherry's 8 was high for the Westlakers.

'80 Percent' Want White St. Open, B'moorite Says

Dear Editor:

In the last issue of the Westlake Times you headed a story, "Broadmoor Raps Extension of White Street."

I take exception to the statement that Broadmoor residents are against the opening up of White street. Every resident I have spoken to regarding access to the shopping center at Westlake is in favor of having the cut through White street.

We have 1100 homes in Broadmoor and if we have to circulate a petition to get in and out of this village, I will guarantee that more than 80 per cent of its homeowners will sign such a petition favoring the opening of the street.

The seven or eight people who are regulars of the Broadmoor Property Owners Ass'n. meetings and Supervisor Callan who does not live in Broadmoor, are not entitled to stop progress of the community and an egress to the outside world.

If Mr. Callan's heart bleeds for the safety of the school children, let him show some energy in putting in sidewalks on 87th street from Washington to Junipero Serra. Of course, some of his property would be assessed for this improvement but it would protect women and children on their way to market, church and school from the race course of automobiles on 87th street.

Police Athletic Loop Has 150 Recruits

Daly City's Police Athletic League—first on the Peninsula—is off to a good 1958 start with a membership of 150 youngsters, reports President John Coleman.

Organized late last year, the local PAL currently has an unbeaten team in the eighth grade basketball league and 60 hopefuls working out for the upcoming boxing tournament.

This Saturday, the PAL will present its "Father-Son" swimming night at Jeff High pool. Dads are encouraged to join their lads for the fun, from 7 to 9:30 o'clock. PAL membership cards are necessary for admission.

The PAL has regular boxing classes on Monday nights, 7 to 9:30, at Jeff High gym. Instructors report good prospects for the big ring tourney later in February or early March.

Classes

Basketball [illegible]es are conducted each Thursday night at War Memorial building under the direction of the PAL. About 110 boys show up each week for competition.

Coleman, pleased with the PAL's growth thus far, nonetheless is concerned with funds. He figures the group needs about $2000 to cover activities this year. Only $700 is in the treasury, however. Donors to date have included the police themselves. Supervisor Tom Callan gave the biggest hunk from an individual—a $100 check.

Officer Coleman and Asst. Police Chief [illegible]cLaren last week attend a PAL [illegible] in Redwood City, where a new PAL unit is being organized. South City also is planning a PAL.

The two Daly City representatives got first-hand information on PAL procedures last week from Frank Kuhlwein, president of the Police Athletic League Inc. of New York, the pioneer PAL organization. Kuhlwein said that his headquarters in Mt. Vernon handles 1000 new boys each year.

DC's PAL charter was prepared by Superior Court Judge Frank Blum. Board of directors will meet again next month.

Individuals wishing more information about the PAL should contact Coleman or other officers at PL 5-0850, police headquarters.

PCL Ump Opens Clinic For Adults At Jeff

Chris Pelekoudas, popular PCL baseball umpire, replaces his familiar garb of mask and pads for the professor's cap and gown next Tuesday evening at the Jefferson Adult School in Daly City when he initiates would-be umpires into baseball lore.

Working in front of a blackboard instead of behind the plate is no novel experience for Chris, who for many years has been conducting popular and successful schools for baseball umpires throughout California.

The new course, which starts next Tuesday at 7 p.m., in room 19 at Jeff High school on Mission street, will parallel a similar course now being conducted by Pelekoudas in the southern end of the Peninsula. In addition to stressing the techniques of umpiring, time has been allotted for presentation and discussion of both the fundamentals of the game and the rules with their interpretations.

The course, open to any interested adult, particularly those people like coaches and [illegible] leaders who are [illegible] officiate games, [illegible] for seven consecutive Tuesdays. No pre-registration or reservations are necessary. There is an adult school fee of $1 for registration. For complete details phone Coach Mike Orlich at PL 5-2511.
